

Drylands: Selected Tourist Attractions in Drylands

 Drylands

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1 - Kuwait: Plant and animal life; Bedouin camel herds   | 5 - Gambia: Savanna landscape, birding                             |
| 2 - Tunisia: Date palm oases, saline lakes, camel riding | 6 - Burkina Faso: Landscape photography, clear springs, waterfalls |
| 3 - Morocco: Desert oases, Mediterranean beaches         | 7 - Namibia: Large sandunes, wildlife safaris                      |
| 4 - Senegal: Palm-fringed white sandy beaches            | 8 - Botswana: Okavango Delta, birding, large game viewing          |

Map Projection: Geographic

Citation: WRI. 2002. World Resources Institute. Drylands, People, and Ecosystem Goods and Services: A Web-based Geospatial Analysis. Available online at: <http://www.wri.org>.

© EarthTrends 2002 World Resources Institute. All rights reserved. Fair use is permitted on a limited scale and for educational purposes.

Analytical Overview:

Data provided by the World Bank are from the World Tourism Organization.

Description:

What are some specific tourist attractions in drylands? This map plots selected tourist attractions-- by region and dryland countries. The map is not comprehensive but does point out major features in certain dryland areas which attract tourists. Examples include features from 8 countries: Kuwait for plant and animal life and Bedouin camel herds; Morocco for desert oases and Mediterranean beaches; Tunisia for date palm oases, saline lakes, and camel riding; Botswana for the Okavango Delta, birding, and big game viewing; Burkina Faso for landscape photography, clear springs, and waterfalls; Gambia for the Guinea savanna landscape and birding; Namibia for large sandunes and wildlife safaris; and Senegal for palm-fringed, white sandy beaches.